

Mission Statement

The mission of the Peace, Freedom, Justice and Fairness Movement is to unite people across nations, cultures, and beliefs to protect the equal value and dignity of every human life.

Our mission is to:

- End war and promote peaceful resolution of international conflict.
- Eliminate hunger, slavery, and preventable human suffering.
- Guarantee freedom of belief, speech, information, and access to knowledge.
- Ensure free, fair, and transparent elections at every level of government.
- Expose and eliminate corruption in public institutions.
- Provide universal access to education for every human being.
- Protect the environment and preserve the natural resources of our planet.
- Defend the rights of all people to live freely and raise their children within their culture.
- Promote truthful information and critical thinking so people can distinguish truth from deception.

Ultimately, our mission is to help humanity build democratic institutions capable of protecting the fundamental rights of all people everywhere.
