

Core Principles of the Peace, Freedom, Justice, and Fairness (PFJF) Movement

The PFJF Movement is founded on the belief that every human life is equal, sacred, and beyond monetary value. We believe that all people deserve peace, freedom, justice, fairness, and the full protection of their human rights regardless of nationality, religion, race, gender, identity, or belief.

We support nonviolence, free and fair democratic governance, freedom of speech and belief, equal treatment under the law, and the elimination of war, genocide, corruption, slavery, and preventable human suffering.

We believe that governments derive legitimacy from the consent of the governed and exist to protect human life, liberty, and dignity.

We seek peaceful, democratic, and transparent solutions to planetary challenges while respecting cultural diversity, individual freedom, and local self-governance.

Our movement is open to all people who share the goal of creating a world with more Peace, Freedom, Justice, and Fairness for all humanity.