

The Sacredness of Human Life

We believe that human life is sacred. Every human being possesses equal worth and dignity. No life is more valuable than another.

If we truly accept this, then we must work to prevent unnecessary and preventable human death caused by:

- War and armed conflict
- Preventable disease and illness
- Hunger and lack of clean water
- Environmental destruction and pollution
- Political corruption
- Criminal violence
- Any other avoidable causes of human suffering